

David L. Schnair Award

The David L. Schnair Award recognizes and honors the outstanding contributions of committed volunteers. BVA established the award in 1994 in memory and in honor of World War II veteran David Schnair, a member of the BVA Board of Directors and a Volunteer National Service Officer for nearly five decades.

Although he was not a founding member of the organization, David Schnair pioneered BVA's efforts beginning in the 1950s. He was both a longtime Director of District 1 and a dedicated volunteer of the New York Regional Group in the Manhattan VA Regional Office. His efforts greatly contributed to the success of what was formerly known as the Association's Field Service Program. His commitment has been recognized by BVA and other organizations.

A true role model, David was known for his passion for assisting blind and low vision veterans to obtain the benefits they had earned through their military service. For that reason, he was a wealth of knowledge and information for those needing his expertise. He was well connected in both the veteran and blindness communities, thus enhancing his effectiveness in serving blind and low vision veterans. He was recognized for his outstanding work by VA, other organizations serving the vision impaired, and the State of New York.

The criteria for nominating candidates for the David L. Schnair Award consist of the following:
